5, 1

13. Candidates are responsible for assessing their eligibility and furnishing complete and correct information. Suppression of facts, production of false documents or furnishing misleading information shall result in cancellation of candidature or termination of appointment, as the case may be, without prejudice to legal action.
14. The University may verify the antecedents and documents of a candidate at any stage of the recruitment process or during service. Appointment shall be liable to cancellation if any information or document is found false, fabricated or suppressed.
15. Appointment shall be subject to satisfactory police verification of character and antecedents.
16. The University reserves the right to revise, reschedule, suspend, cancel or withdraw the recruitment process, wholly or partly, without assigning any reason, subject to applicable law.
17. If an inadvertent error is detected at any stage, including after issue of an appointment letter, the University may correct, modify, withdraw or cancel the relevant communication/selection, in accordance with law.
18. The number of vacancies may be increased, decreased or withdrawn depending upon administrative requirements.
19. Interim enquiries regarding the recruitment process shall not be entertained.
20. Canvassing in any form shall disqualify the candidate.
21. The decision of the Screening Committee regarding screening and shortlisting shall be final, subject to review by the Competent Authority and applicable law.
22. Pay, allowances, service conditions and age of superannuation shall be governed by the applicable UGC norms and University rules/UT Ladakh Rules, as amended from time to time. A selected candidate shall execute the prescribed service agreement at the time of joining.
23. A person appointed by direct recruitment shall be on probation for one year in the first instance, or for such period as may be prescribed under the University Statutes/Rules. The appointing authority may extend the period of probation in accordance with the applicable rules.
24. A selected candidate must be medically fit and shall produce a certificate of medical fitness from the prescribed Medical Board/competent medical authority.
25. Any amendment to this advertisement shall be published only on the University website (<https://uol.ac.in>).
